The most of the great fortune left by J. Pierpont Morgan will go to his widow and three children—Miss Anne Morgan, an unmarried daughter; J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., 46 years old, and Mrs. Herbert L. Satterlee, wife of the well-known New York lawyer. The fortune left by the great financier is said to approximate $250,000,000.—Ex.

Circuit Court began Monday morning with our new Judge, Hon. Hugh Riddell, of Irvine, on the bench. The court and the business moved off with surprising ease and rapidity, as we had expected a little bit of nervousness on the part of the Judge, but we were pleasantly surprised. Judge Riddell presides like one who had long had the interests of his neighbors in his hands and with entire satisfaction to litigants and attorneys. He says he hopes to hold our courts for two years at least.—Beattyville Enterprise.

Mr. L. M. Gray, former City Assessor of Danville, fell into a cistern at his home on East Broadway this morning in a peculiar manner. Fortunately all the water had been drawn out some days ago in order that some repairs could be made. Mr. Gray was attempting to place a ladder in the cistern and lost his balance and fell forward into the opening. He was alone at the time and it was quite a while before he was discovered. Help immediately was called to his assistance by members of his family and a ladder was put down and he came out but little worse for the wear, save a few bruises and scratches.—Danville Advocate.

Goes Home With Father

James Hensley reached Winchester last Tuesday night to return to Pittsburgh with his daughter, Miss Alice Hensley, who was taken from an L. & N. train Monday night by Patrolman Ballard, as she was on her way to Cincinnati to be married. She was glad to see her father, and accompanied him home apparently in a penitent mood. She notified her sweetheart in Cincinnati by wire that she had been detained.

Chattanooga, Tenn., is regarded as Southern headquarters for Mormons. Outside of Salt Lake City, the largest printing house in the world is located at Chattanooga. The largest number of workers report there, and the largest number of converts are listed there.

Boys' Corn Club

J. R. Roberson and H. R. Kirk, who have recently been chosen as principals of the two county high and consolidated schools and as county supervisors, will co-operate with the county superintendent in the boys corn club work. A close and careful attempt will be made to branch out more extensively this year along this line. Every rural school boy in the county is urged to make an attempt. Last year's work alone raised the general yield of the State six bushels per acre.

Each contestant must be or have been enrolled in the public schools, and between 10 and 18 years of age. Each member must raise an acre—not a fraction. Each member may furnish his own seed corn. The land must be measured and certified to; 43,560 square feet make an acre. Plant as soon as suits your conditions after April 15.

All the boys of Madison county who desire to take part in the contest are urged to meet Mr. Roberson and Mr. Kirk in the County Superintendent's office on Saturday, April 19, at 2:30 p. m.

If further information is desired address or call on Prof. John Noland, Richmond, Prof. J. R. Roberson, Waco, Prof. H. R. Kirk, Kirksville, or Prof. Frank Montgomery of Berea College.

J. P. Marrs, of Pikeville, Believed to Have Been Drowned in Flood at Ashland

A telegram from Pikeville to Mr. Thomas May, of Clark county, brings out the fact that Mr. J. P. Marrs, a prominent business man of Pikeville is missing and as he started from his home several days ago for Winchester via Ashland, it may be that he met death in the floods that have been prevailing along the Big Sandy and Ohio rivers in eastern Kentucky. All efforts on the part of his son, Mr. Grover Marrs, to locate his father, have proved futile. Thinking that he might probably be at the home of his relative, Mr. Thomas May in this county, a telegram was sent here Wednesday. But Mr. May declares he has heard nothing from the elder Marrs. No trace of him can be found at Ashland or Catlettsburg and great fear is felt by his family and friends for his safety.

Mr. Marrs was Commonwealth's Attorney of the Nineteenth District when Judge H. C. Lilly was Judge 1886-1892.

Horses Marooned at Washington, Ind., Reach Lexington

The car load of horses from Juarez that were marooned at Washington, Ind., on account of the flood for nearly two weeks, have finally reached Lexington. They do not appear to be any the worse for their experience, and it may be that the rest in the big, comfortable barn in Hoosierland really did them good. In the car were six of J. F. Newman's Texas-bred runners, in charge of Ort Newman, and including Pan Zareta, Mother Katcham and Dick Dodie.

Estill Herald Leased

E. E. Smith, a young newspaper man of Owenton, Ky., who for several months has been connected with the McClure News Syndicate, of Lexington, has leased the Estill County Herald, at Irvine, and went to that place Monday to take charge of the plant. The paper, which was formerly conducted by Prof. J. L. Carpenter, has always been Republican in politics, and Mr. Smith being a Democrat, some controversy arose in the negotiations as to the future political policy of the paper. Mr. Smith agreed, however, upon assuming charge to make it an independent sheet, and the deal for taking it over was concluded.

Telephone to Glazier

"I WISH you would get a glazier to come up and set that pane of glass the children broke yesterday. The house is as cold as a barn," said the suburban housewife, as her husband was about to go to business.

"Haven't time this morning," replied her husband. "Just look in the Telephone Directory—you'll find several there. Give the order to the one who says he will send a man right up."

Its the man with the telephone who gets the hurry orders every time.
